

Name of the tool:	Money Expenditures Survey
Purpose:	A survey to capture college student money expenditure, and what categories they are spending their money on.
How was it conceptualized?	To better understand how college students are spending their money.
What were the steps in development (including face/content validation, cognitive interviews, psychometrics, etc.)?	Face and content validation by nutrition experts.
Who was it tested with? (initial sampling)	College students, 4-year university
How is it scored?	Overall average score.
How has it been used since?	Used to assess how college students who report experience food insecurity are spending their money.
Limitations for use:	Has not been used to assess money expenditure in a food secure college student sample.
Potential applications and future applications:	This tool can be used to better understand how college students are prioritizing their spending.